Dear Mr. Shulman,

I wish to express my sincere gratitude for the recent Antonov An-26 and An-32 and Mil Mi-8/17 aviation training that your company provided to my squadron. We searched long and hard for a company that could provide this vitally important training to us, and I am very glad we did business together.

The quality of academic training we received from the Kirovgrad Academy and the Kremenouch Flight School was outstanding. The instructors were thorough and professional, and my pilots, engineers, and maintenance men were extremely satisfied with their instruction.

Additionally, I sincerely appreciate your obvious dedication to customer service. It was clear to me and to my squadron that you bent over backwards to ensure all went as smoothly as possible for us. Transporting twenty Americans to the Ukraine and caring for them for five weeks is quite an undertaking. You and your company accomplished it all with class, concern, and attention to detail.

I look forward to working with Concord XXI in the very near future.

Sincerely,
